Bleske-Rechek, April. Recent research from her lab was the topic of a lengthy piece, “Men Are More Likely to Be Sexually Attracted to Their Opposite-Sex Friends” by Drake Baer in New York magazine, published 31 October 2016. http://nymag.com/scienceofus/2016/10/men-are-more-likely-to-be-sexually-attracted-to-friends.html

April Bleske-Rechek has been selected as a scholar for the Wisconsin Teaching Fellows and Scholars Program for 2017-18. This program offers UW faculty and teaching academic staff a unique opportunity to collaborate with other exceptional teachers from across the UW System and from various disciplines. The Scholars work on a Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL) project.
